COUNTY WHEAT CROP IS FINE, MILL REPORTS

Threshing Gets Under Way with Average of 30 Bushels to Acre

LONG WINTER RESPONSIBLE

One Farmer Gets 64 Pounds to Bushel; State Yield Is Heavy

Wheat fields in Marion County are bare

Harvesters have clipped them clean and threshing machines are rumbling throughout the county

The first load of wheat was delivered to the Marion National Mills Wednesday It weighed well and brought $1 33 per bushel

The wheat crop of Marion County is of excellent quality according to the report from the mill Kernels are hard and dry and rattle out of the threshers like so many pebbles

Although the average over the state is only 18 bushels an acre Marion County farmers report an average of 30 bushels an acre

Quantity About Same

The long winter is responsible for the good wheat crop in the county according to reports at the Marion National Mills Co Many farmers however failed to get wheat planted because of the rainy weather at the time for the regular planting Those who are harvesting the crops now were fortunate in planting the grain early in the season it is said

The total amount of wheat harvested in Marion County this year will be approximately the same as that reaped from the fields last year according to estimates

The wheat of the county delivered to the mills so far this season is testing on an average of 63 pounds to the bushel The lowest test recorded at Marion National Mills is 62 pounds and the highest rates at 66

The mills report a rushing business in the handling of wheat crops during the last two days

41 Bushels Per Acre

C D Mavers Richland Township reports the threshing of 1 290 bushels from 32 acres, an average of 41 bushels

Officer is Slain in Gun Fight With Chicken Thieves

Companion Is Wounded in Battle; One Man Captured, but Slayer Makes His Getaway in Darkness; Bags of Chickens Found in Automobile

Greenville July 23—Special Officer Simon Penny 54 was shot and killed at 3 o'clock this morning and Officer Ora McClellan 50 was wounded in a fight with two chicken thieves in the south end of the city

The man who did the shooting made his escape but his companion Harvey Seymour 45 of Laura a small village in Miami County was arrested

Seymour told the officers that he does not know the name of the man who killed the shooting and claims that he was on his way to Detroit and had accepted a ride from him

Shortly after 2 o'clock this morning a call came into police headquarters that an auto had been driven into an alley in the south end and two men had left it parked there The informant did not give his name but officers Penny and McClellan were directed to the scene

Chickens in Car

They found the auto and on opening the car and inside were two bags filled with chickens

Hiding in the weeds close by the officers waited for the men to return In about ten minutes the men were heard coming back and as they started to get into the car Penny and McClellan covered them with their guns and ordered them to throw up their hands Uher did as did Seymour As he went to get the other man to buckle him the fellow whipped out a gun and fired The second shot took effect in Penny's body the bullet passing through his stomach Mortally wounded Penny fell to the ground but summoned strength at his assailant

McClellan was slightly wounded in the darkness the man escaped McClellan went back to assist his brother officer He was taken to the City Building and a doctor called but he died a few minutes after his arrival

Extra License Plates

Penny was regularly employed as a janitor in the Greenville National Bank but had acted as special officer at different times He had recently been employed on the Greenville force in place of Cliff d Hunsaeke who is on a vacation His wife died some time ago Three grown children survive

Seymour is believed by the officers to be covering up the name of his companion but it is thought that his identity will be established The Ford car which the men occupied had an extra set of license plates inside No reports of chicken thefts had been received late this morning and it is not known where the men had obtained those found in their car

Officer McClellan said that the man who shot Penny was about 25 years old

WORK ON WATER MAIN NEARING COMPLETION

About Four Weeks More Needed for Improvement, Whysall Says

Work on the new 24 inch water main of the Marion Water Co from the pumping station to the city is nearing completion, George Whysall, president of the company announced today.

Mr Whysall said he thought the next four weeks would see the completion of the new water main

When the new line is completed there will be two mains extending from the pumping station to Marion. The one now in use is a 16-inch pipe and the additional main will be a 24-inch pipe. Both mains will be in use at all times to supply the city with water.

The laying of the new city line will also relieve the danger of the city being without water when there is a break in the other lines.

Between 35 and 40 men are employed in the work.

RED GRANGE GLAD HE HASN'T REGULAR GIRL

Would Have Terrible Time "Explaining" About Taylor Case, He Says

Wheaton, Ill, July 23—Red Grange, the actor fireman grid star named in the Hollywood divorce suit of Charles Taylor, wealthy California oil supply dealer, thanked his lucky stars today that he didn't have a "regular girl"

"Wouldn't I have a swell time trying to explain this situation" said the smiling Grange "Imagine telling a girl I never saw Mrs Taylor alone or never kissed her, and expect her to believe it

I'm as innocent as Santa Claus, but where is the girl that would believe me? As it was Dad came to my room and after I had read the papers he leaned over and said

Never mind son It's part of the game Men have been accused of things before just because they were able to get a step or two ahead of the crowd"

Saying which Wheaton's favorite son dusted off his cap and went back to the business of polishing the He is training for pro and football this season

Grange announced that he will leave in a few days for Pennsylvania to visit his mother and two sisters On his return, he will go back on the ice wagon until the football season opens

CHARGE LIQUOR SERVED TO PRISONERS IN CELLS

Booze Smuggled into Prison and Given to Inmates, Judge Hears

Chicago July 24—How liquor was smuggled into the county jail in hot water bottles and dispensed to the prisoners through rubber tubes stuck between bars of their cells, was the information laid before Judge John P McGoorty today

Judge McGoorty is conducting an investigation into conditions at the jail Sergeant Joseph Whitelaw, who raided several apartments across the street and an apartment across the street and seized a number of rubber bags filled with moonshine, told how the prisoners were supplied with liquor.

"These hot water bottles are easily concealed under a coat and a booze peddler can walk into the jail and serve drinks through the screens by using a rubber tube We know that jail guards have been winking at this practice"

THREE DEAD IS TOLL OF CHICAGO GANGLAND

Millionaire Cafe Owner, Police Officer and Negro Bandit Are Slain

Chicago, July 23—A millionaire cafe owner, a police officer and a negro bandit are dead here today following a night of activity in gangland

Phillipo Piazza, owner of the Milano Cafe in Chicago Heights, was shot and instantly killed by two gunmen as he stood in the doorway of his restaurant.

Theodore Anderson a detective, was shot to death by two negro bandits who tried to hold him up Anderson, dressed in plain clothes was patrolling his beat on Wabash av when accosted by the bandits He answered their command to "stick 'em up" by drawing his own revolver He was shot down before he could fire

Fifteen minutes later one of the bandits was shot and killed by police when he resisted arrest His companion escaped

The shooting of Piazza was a typical gangland killing The men emerged from the shadows fired several volleys into the body of their victim and then escaped in a waiting automobile

Piazza was known as the alcohol and beer king of Chicago Heights It is believed gangster beer runners, dissatisfied with his leadership, caused his assassination The plain man was under indictment of federal court charged with violation of the prohibition laws

PARENTS SEE SON DROWN NEAR LIMA

Hear Lad Call for Help But Are Unable To Give Him Aid

Lima, July 23—Unable to aid him, Mr. and Mrs George Liles saw their son, Bryant, 15, drowned last night at Leaf Creek Reservoir, two miles east of this city

Bryant, together with his parents and three sisters went to the reservoir late yesterday for a picnic He went in bathing while his relatives remained on shore His parents watched him swim for some time and then knowing he was an excellent swimmer, they strolled around the shore watching some persons fishing

Hearing a cry for help, they rushed back to see the boy go down. They called for help and a score of persons together with police and firemen assisted in searching for the boy but the body was not recovered until 30 minutes after the accident had occurred.

Habitue of Canton's "Jungle" Tells How He Paid $125 Weekly Tribute to "King"

CANTON, July 23—Tribute has been paid to the czars of Canton's underworld within the last seven months

And when the tribute stopped, police action started

That was the sincere declaration of Pete Magras, self admitted habitue of Canton's "jungle" to newspapermen early today following his release by police late yesterday.

Magras declared that he had paid $125 a week to James "Jumbo" Crowley for six consecutive weeks —starting about seven months ago —for the privilege of operating a gambling house near Cherry av, S E, and Eighth-st.

"On the seventh week, my money was low and I could pay but $105,' Magras declared, stating that he would gladly testify to all of his statements before any jury.

Says Place Raided

"That day, my place was raided and I was fined $50."

"I went back and opened up and started operations that night and suddenly there was a rap on the door," he continued "Homer Moore, head of the police vice squad, stuck his head inside and said, 'Pete, you can not keep this place open anymore' So I closed up and started bootlegging"

He then told how he was hounded by police vice raiders, and was arrested three times in as many weeks for bootlegging He said his wife also was arrested for transporting liquor and is now working

Denver Social Worker Says Auto and Gasoline Hobos Worry Clergy and Courts

Gives Title of "Hitchers" to Persons Who Stand by Side of Road and Ask Rides from Motorists and Tourists; Deplores Gas Beggars

Denver Colo July 23—Just a Gasoline hobo as a title originated in Denver to accord the country for the of persons wishing to describe the family that travels in an automobile and pending on charity for repairs shelter food and gasoline so has Denver the distinction of presenting a new word that offers a new problem for the social workers clergymen and

Hitcher is the new title and is presented by Mrs Anna G Williams a visitor of the social service bureau

Which is aided if in her opinion the falling in the auto and increased divorce evil as revealed by reports of family relations bureau cases and indicates that men and women have decided to dispense with legal ties and depend on congeniality to hold them together Mrs Williams trotted out the word hitchers

Also 'Hitchers'

Hitchers said Mrs Williams are the folk who stand by the side of the road and suggest of letting the world by stop automobiles and beg for rides

They come in to Denver as well as other places and hunt up the social service bureau and ask for aid in finding food and lodging

The Bureau is obliged to ask certain question of the uninvited guests among them the name of their native town their last place of residence and if they are married In an amazingly large number Mrs Williams said the bureau is unable to verify the marriages

According to Mrs Williams these hitchers open a large field for specialization in the marriage question and they demonstrate that companionship means a great deal more than do legal ties

Mrs Williams said that her experience with itinerant travelers seeking aid discourteous specific among the is that here is a breaking down of the spirit for the institution of marriage

Product of Unrest

I am sure the hitcher is a product of the unrest noted in all parts of the world Those folks had rather fly than walk they know not then to remain at home leaving those they love In addition they want to see the country and see it at the expense of others

The hitcher is present a case of fine romance by wiping the bonds of matrimony Sometimes they must be taken seriously At the present time they are in a public groups of vagrants with a halfpenny or money but there is a feeling of talk which eventually provides free automobile accommodation in this next place

PASSENGERS DANCE AS SHIP BURNS THREE DAYS

Tons of Bran in Hold of British Liner Catch Fire in Mediterranean

Plymouth Eng July 23—After a terrible three days' fight with fire on a ship at sea while passengers danced on deck was described when the British liner Sagona arrived here from Rangoon

While in the Mediterranean a fire broke out in the hold where hundreds of sacks of bran were stored All ventilators were opened to prevent air from getting into the hold and steam and water pumped in Hundreds of tons of bunker coal and cargo were removed to get at the fire

Officers went into the building clad with smoke helmets and hand aerolights tied over their faces to protect them from the fumes

Passengers arriving here paid a tribute to the work of the purser of the vessel his untiring work making it possible for the passengers to carry on with their usual deck amusement they danced at night as if everything was normal

Daily Proverb—"What many men regard as luck with others they are inclined to look upon as judgment in themselves."

We Americans are an unsatisfied lot. For days we have been complaining about the heat for which, six weeks ago, we prayed.

Somebody should be penalized for sidetracking those thunder showers which the weather bureau told us Thursday it was sending along to reduce the heat the following day.

Five additional banks in Florida closed Monday, making thirty-one since May 31. That Georgia-Florida chain seems to have had a lot of weak links.

We see that the Republicans of Iowa have indorsed Coolidge and taken Brookhart to their bosom, which reminds us of the fellow who couldn't decide which was the worse, the indigestion he suffered or the mustard plaster he applied.

Addressing the Christian Endeavor congress in London, Lloyd George urged youth to end wars. Hardly the noise he made back in wartime. Sometimes we are inclined to wonder if Lloyd is not slightly given to opportunism.

A Wall street statistician figures that American women spend $150,000,000 annually for stockings and lingerie. Well, we'll have to hand it to them for showing more for the money than ever before.

We refuse to become excited over rows in the Montmartre district between American college youths and Paris toughs. If the best our college youths can get out of European travel is to be found in the joints of that district, they had better stay at home.

And then this may be said for the fellows who predicted the present year would be summerless; they came just as close to hitting the mark as they usually do.

Bebe Daniels is said to have learned with surprise and glee that Charles Paddock, her admirer, had been knighted by the king of Montenegro. Have a care, Babe! Don't get him thinking about it, or he'll spend the remainder of his life wondering what for.

An Argentine meteorologist explains the heat by saying that the sun is suffering "an attack of eruptive fever." It must be awful to have the effect it has had on us down here.

Even though we may not have been impressed by her senatorial candidacy, all of us are bound to think more highly of Miss Allen for releasing the Cuyahoga delegation voluntarily committed to it. It is not every candidate who gives evidence of the possession of such a spirit of sportsmanship.

An exchange tells us that Pennsylvania leads the country in the production of buckwheat. However, it was the distribution of "sawbucks" which brought her so conspicuously into the rays of the spot-light.

"Martial Law Expected in Japan, Where Mobs Resent Government Retrenchment Policy," read a headline Thursday. We assume useless job-holders went on the rampage. Over here the policy is to have members of congress storm the White House to get 'em reinstated.

Something New in Feature Line.

The Star received from a New York City syndicating house, one day this week, the prospectus of a "feature" to be run in installments from day to day under the heading, "Why I Horse-Whipped John Doe, My Multi-Millionaire Father-in-Law." Of course, the name was not John Doe. We simply substituted that name for the name used, not wishing to be a party to the exposing of any dirty family linen.

We are assured that intimate facts are calmly told in an interesting and frank way by the daughter-in-law writer, and that the secrets revealed will astonish social, political and commercial circles. "Full of spice and sensation," reads the prospectus. "A live circulation stabilizer for the dull summer months. Interesting illustrations."

It's our opinion that if we must resort to this particular feature, or any like it, to stabilize our circulation during the "dull summer months," our circulation will have to go unstabilized. Furthermore, it is our opinion—we do not say it is so, but simply that it is our opinion—that if this or any other paper has to resort to the airing of family quarrels and differences save in connection with court proceedings or current news developments to maintain its existence as a going concern, it were better that it ceased to be a going concern.

Frankly, we can not grasp what must be the esteem in which newspapers are held, that serious attempt should be made to put such a feature upon the market.

Personally, we do not care why this young woman horse-whipped her father-in-law, and it would not have grieved us seriously, after having looked over the prospectus, had we learned that her father-in-law had beaten her over the head with a club.

Valentino on the Warpath.

There's going to be trouble up in Chicago next week. Rudolph Valentino is going there from New York City to beat up the writer of an editorial in the Chicago Tribune headed "Pink Powder Puffs." The only thing that will prevent him, Rudolph says, is the possible development that the writer is feeble, or old, or too young. If the writer is too young for a beating, a young writer is going to get spanked.

We said that Rudolph was going to beat up the offender. Maybe that's a bit strong. In his letter addressed to the writer, he simply expressed the hope for "an opportunity to demonstrate to you that the wrist under a slave bracelet may snap a real fist into your sagging jaw, and to teach you respect for a man even though he happens to keep his face clean!"

The editorial in question disclosed that the men's lounge of a new public ballroom on Chicago's North Side had been found provided with a slot machine dispensing face powder for "personal puffs." It asked what masculine America was coming to.

"Why didn't some one quietly drown Rudolph Guglielmo, alias Valentino, years ago?" the editorial writer asked. After detailed discussion of conditions he concluded: "Rudy, the beautiful gardener's boy, is the prototype of the American male."

We can not say that we particularly admire Mr. Valentino, either on or off the screen. Neither do the clothes he wears nor the fads he affects appeal to us. But these matters are his affairs, not ours. We have always given him credit for being, like many another screen star, appreciative of the policy of keeping himself before the public, and assumed that he resorted to what the average man would consider oddities to that end. The fact that women have made fools of themselves over him, if it is a fact, is their fault, not his. If this possible fact and his meteoric rise from a cabaret dancer to a high-salaried screen star has gone to his head, he is not the first to be thus affected. Others have suffered from exaggerated ego with as little excuse. If he uses a powder puff—we do not know that he does, but if he does—it is no more than the average man has his barber use on him. If all the Marion men who come out of local barber shops, powdered and toniced and perfumed, were assembled, it would make a goodly-sized army, and the most of these have the barber fix them up to improve their appearance, without the excuse of getting an advertisement out of it or the financial reward which comes by way of salary for being the "Adonis of the Screen" and the "World's Most Perfect Lover," or whatever way it is that Valentino's advertising man and the writer of his silly and sickening "confessions" may call him.

Frankly, we can see that he has some ground for displeasure over thus being dragged into an editorial on the finding of powder puffs in a lounge for men up in Chicago.

But he has made a mistake, if he is sincere in his intention to assault the writer of the editorial in question, and not merely doing a little more advertising. If he is really sincere in his desire to fight a duel and is prevented only by the law; if he is sincere in his expressed intention to "rough it up" with the writer, he should have done it first and let the facts speak for themselves, and not resorted to letter-writing. His letter reads too much like a sub-title in a movie thriller. It can not do other than make the public laugh.

And there's another phase of the thing which doesn't appear to have occurred to Mr. Valentino. What will he do if he should happen to make the discovery that the editorial writer into whose sagging jaw he is going to snap a real fist is a handsome young woman about eighteen years of age, or such a matter?

But think how much better it might have been had it not come in a year without a summer!

Now that Mr. Herriot is out of the premiership, he is probably safe. And by the same token, his relinquishing of the reigns of government may be taken to indicate an added degree of safety for France.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer expresses surprise over the announcement that 1925 was a banner year for the corset trade, possibly not having stopped to consider that, at the same price, the profit on a girdle is easily 800 per cent. greater than on a corset.

Talking about service, through the enterprise of the New York Central mail from Europe is being delivered in Cleveland and intermediate points before the passengers on the liner bringing it over land in New York. How that reminds us of our mail service under governmental management of the railroads. It's so different!

Even were "Pussyfoot" Johnson given the use of the army and navy to drive out rum and establish prohibition, just as likely as not he would complicate things by naming Governor Gif. Pinchot, or somebody like that, for his chief of staff.

Representatives of the Young Men's Christian association assembled in Geneva from fifty different countries have voted Jesus Christ and Napoleon Bonaparte the greatest characters of all history. It's our guess that the Y. M. C. A. delegates have given the Lord an association that He never would have chosen for Himself.

Let us be perfectly fair to the French. They do not complain because we have loaned them $1,655,000,000, but because we have not released them from the payment of the debt as we did that contracted by her during the war.

Pleading guilty to the killing of Patrolman Earl J. Koblinski while holding up the People's State bank, of Plymouth, Michigan, July 9, three youthful bandits were given life sentences July 21. The fourth member of the band was shot to death in the chase of the robbers, at which time most of the loot was recovered. It has been a long time getting a start, but justice appears to be speeding up at last.

If Death Certificates Were True.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

In a London magazine I saw a little skit headed "Truthful Death Certificates." This is worth reading, so I quote it for your benefit:

"Some day we will tell the truth in the death certificates and the reports will be made out like this:

"'Died after thirty years of over-eating.'

"'Smothered himself to death; worked and slept in unventilated rooms.'

"'Poisoned by his wife, who used wrong cooking methods.'

"'Burned out; slept only six hours a night.'

"'Killed by high living.'

"'Good health is a luxury that all of us can enjoy if we are willing to play the game on a long low of averages.'"

You will laugh over this article, but in it is hidden great wisdom. These certificates are true to fact. They tell the story of what happens to a good many men, especially city men.

There are certain simple rules of conduct which must govern every life, or disaster is on the way. In the first place there must be abundant sleep.

I know a man who goes to bed at midnight and gets up at 4 o'clock in the morning to play golf. He has an idea that exercise in the open air is all he needs to be well and happy. No one can question that exercise in the open air is desirable for everybody, but it can not take the place of sleep. Sleep restores the nervous system and gives the tired muscles time to recover their vigor.

But it is not enough to sleep a lot. This sleep must be had in a well-ventilated room. Otherwise, as is suggested in the newspaper article, the victim finds himself smothered to death.

Over-eating or eating poorly-cooked foods is one of the most common of vices. There can be no health or long life by one who indulges in such practices.

By high living we mean late hours, badly ventilated rooms, rich and unneeded food, mental excitement and wicked indulgence of every sort. One has but to watch the career of those who indulge in high living to realize how fatal it is. Not only is it fatal so far as life is concerned, but it is fatal to the usefulness and effectiveness of every career. Read and ponder this article. It is worth while.

ANSWERS TO HEALTH QUERIES

L. W. Q—My mother has a tumor growing on the brain and complains of being dizzy and at times almost unable to walk—would it be safe to leave her alone and will she drop over at any time?

A—This depends upon the type of tumor and its location in the brain. The doctor attending your mother should be the best one to advise you concerning her particular case.

A READER. Q—What would cause specks before the eyes and a feeling of numbness in the hands and feet during the day—the feeling can be described as "pins and needles."

A—Have a careful urinalysis made, since there may be a possible kidney condition responsible. Poor circulation might also cause these symptoms.

A. J. R. Q—What should a girl weigh who is twelve years old and five feet three inches tall?

2—What do you suggest for the cure of dandruff?

3—How can I get rid of freckles?

A—For her age and height she should weigh about 105 pounds.

2—Shampoo the hair frequently and use a good tonic. For further information send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

3—To make freckles less noticeable you might apply equal parts of lemon juice and peroxide. Afterwards massage gently with a good cold cream as this treatment is apt to prove drying to the skin.

The Way of the World.

BY GROVE PATTERSON.

French psychologists suspect that radio waves, sent out by wireless broadcasting stations, are damaging the nerves of people who live in such a troubled atmosphere. We all know that some human beings are especially sensitive to electrical disturbance—static before storms for example. Just what radio waves do to such people science is trying to find out.

Personally the writer is inclined to believe that nervous systems are more seriously damaged by the quality of the jazz that comes out of the loud speaker.

If you think you have problems and troubles look at Judge Caverly, of Chicago. He it was who passed on the Loeb-Leopold case. But that wasn't all. He says a long succession of other criminal cases in which he has been called upon to decide the personal destinies of scores of men and women have broken down his health. He seeks a job where he will pass on dollars instead of humans.

Seeking other work, the judge makes two important observations in passing. First, he says divorce laws ought to be uniform in all states. Second, he says the grand jury as an institution ought to be abolished, but that special grand juries might be called in emergencies. That is sensible talk.

We learn that the American flag in its present form—the stars and stripes—was first under fire in the defense of Fort Stanwix, New York, in 1777. The red was taken from various places where there was any red cloth to be found. The white was cut from ammunition shirts and the blue came from a cloak captured from the enemy. Note especially where the blue came from. When you can batter down opposition, overcome hardship and then make hardship and opposition serve your purpose you have done a real job.

You will be interested to hear an announcement by Professor G. M. Robertson, of London, addressing the Royal Medical Psychological association. He finds that insanity is three times more common among unmarried men and women than it is among married. Further statistics show married men are healthier in every way than bachelors. Somebody has said that married men do not live longer—it just seems longer. Evidently the facts are against such scornful persons. Married folks actually do live longer.

At an auction held by a celebrated dealer in London a few days ago a picture of Woodrow Wilson brought the highest price. And the picture went to an American. The next highest prices were paid for pictures of General Pershing and Colonel House. Perhaps these prices are significant. Perhaps there is some history in them.

Vagrant Verse.

THE SOUND OF RAIN.

And all the long night through I heard that sound—
I heard it on the roof and on the ground,
I heard it in my sleep.
And in my dream
The black trees dripped with silver, and the gleam
Of silver pools that lit the sombre street
Made bright the summer darkness.
Passing feet
Went softly through the night. The city lay
Beneath a shining spell.
The clouds were gray
That hung upon the day. And oh, the sound,
The rhythm of the rain!
I have not found
In all the myriad music of the years
One song like this.

When my immortal ears
Shall hear the harp of my immortal day,
Plucked by some angel fingers,
I shall say,
"Now I remember darkness and the rain.
And all the ecstasy and all the pain
That I have known of old."
And I shall see
The wet black bark of some dear earthly tree,
The wet black stones, and little pools of light,
That lay beneath the windows of the night.

I shall remember, too, the restless wind
Above the rainy street, its singing thinned
Into a thread, a breath, a straying note
Like the faint calling from a lost bird's throat.

I shall remember. In the soul of me
The sound of rain is endless as the sea.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. McINTYRE.

New York, July 23 — Thoughts while strolling: Five a. m. at Grand Central. Who do people take early morning trains? Manhattan's dawn comes early, flashing fire from windows of lofty minarets. Stumpers sprawled on park benches, stirring to another day of misery.

Youths with university blazers and wispy biscuit-colored pants swinging off to tennis courts. Milk wagons rumbling home. Taxi day is over. Sign polishers whistling at their tusks. Whatever became of all-the-year derbies? The medley of rattling ash cans.

Early Victories with their plug-hatted [illegible]. Shops begin to open. Strawberry short cake—short a few berries. A miniature Taj Mahal in white soap. Winking trays in the jewelry winds. An exchange shop—filled with flutes, saxophones and radios.

Breakfast sign: "Knobby waffles!" No adding so tantalizing as that of frying bacon. Hotel boys promenading with dogs. The tame pigeons that flutter from Broadway eaves. The outrush of humanity from subway [illegible] with heads buried in newspapers.

The Rialto poise, sangfroid and other theatrical virtues. Skirts even shorter. The human race is about done for, I guess. Gad, I'm near-sighted. That is, partly sighted. Wonder if Abe Erlanger gets to his office early every morning?

Why do Oriental rug sellers travel in pairs? Cafes with kitchens in the window. Cinnamon rolls—there's a dish. A Ride-a-Wee Home dog ambulance. The Ninth avenue employment agency where decrepit old men go to carry [illegible] and pass advertising bills.

A butcher shop heralds "meat for the cat free." Like the good old days. Who remembers when the kerosene can had polar stoppers? And with twenty-five Arbuckle coffee signatures you got a collapsible silver toothpick? Women jabbering from upstairs windows when they should be dusting the parlor.

There are three men who seem essential to every public dinner in New York—Mayor Walker, ex-Ambassador Moore and Otto Kahn.

The three best after-dinner speakers New York has had in my time, I believe, are Irvin Cobb, the late Rennold Wolf and Wilson Lackaye.

Rennold Wolf left a deep gap in Broadway life. He was an accomplished critic as well as playwright and speaker. He was usually seen at first nights—generally with his gray-haired mother. Tortured by a physical affliction, he became almost a recluse during the last year. Broadway saw little of him, but he continued to work until the final few days. Next to Alan Dale, he had seen more plays hit or miss and wither away than any of his fellows. He was a brilliant wit, but his barbs were velvet-sheathed, and everybody was his friend. His collection of first editions was among the finest in town.

Today's Worst Story.

BY WILL ROGERS

The worst story I heard today was told to me by C. R. Wilson, of Huntington, West Virginia—the Claremore of West Virginia. And by the way, I didn't ask C. R. if he was any kin to old Riley Wilson. Riley's range is right down that way when the picking is good. Riley is a kind of an omen of good times. Where Riley is, everybody is prosperous.

Well, this Wilson party I met one day starting out on what we would call the front porch in Huntington. But it was "The Open Verandas," in Nice, France. We both spotted each other for neither one of us could master the frog language. He had just ordered what he thought was to be steak, and it turned out to be cherries.

I was sitting there having lunch or what we would call dinner in Huntington. I had made four stabs at ordering soup and the nearest I got to it was sardines.

Nice is near Monte Carlo, but that brings on another story. I asked him if he knew Tom Harvey and of course he did. He told me this Lerro story:

His hired girl wanted off one afternoon. She told Mrs. Wilson that she wanted to get married. Mrs. Wilson said: "Why I didn't know you were even engaged?" Yes, mam, I am engaged." "How long have you known this man?" "Oh, long time, but we jes' been engaged a week. You remember I was telling you 'bout a funeral I was to las' week?" "Yes I do." "Well, I am marrying the corpse's husband."—Copyright, 1926.

Today's Events.

Friday, July 23.

Centenary of the birth of Bonner Puryear, noted Virginia educator and author.

The Most Rev. Sebastian G. Messmer, archbishop of Milwaukee, today celebrated his fifty-fifth anniversary in the Roman Catholic priesthood.

Whether Mayor Al E. Sunderland, of Fresno, California, shall be removed from office or allowed to serve out his term will be determined at a recall election in that city today.

Fort Mansfield, located on Napatree Point near Watch Hill, Rhode Island, has been advertised to be sold by the war department at public auction today, together with its reservation of about 112 acres.

The most spirited political campaign Texas has experienced in years will come to a close today, preliminary to the holding of a special election tomorrow for the selection of a state ticket. Interest centers chiefly in the Democratic gubernatorial contest, in which Governor Miriam A. Ferguson is opposed for renomination by a field of five rival candidates, including two women.

Who's Who and Why.

MRS. FLORENCE BACHE.

Her contributions to charities have won other decoration for Mrs. Florence Bache, formerly, the wife of Jules S. Bache, the well known New York banker. She has just been awarded the Cross of the Legion of Honor by the French government.

In July, 1919, Mrs. Bache was decorated with the medal of Queen Elizabeth by the king of the Belgians, in recognition of the services rendered by her to Belgium during the war. Previously she had received a Belgian medal for her work for the war babies' crusade. Subsequently, in recognition of her services rendered to the population of devastated French provinces, the French government awarded her the Medaille de la Reconnaissance Francaise.

Mrs. Bache obtained a divorce from Jules Bache on August 10, 1925, in Paris. Florence R. Sheftel, she was married to Jules Bache in 1892. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bache are well known in France. Mr. Bache is a member of the Legion of Honor.

Had Been Relentless

One of the strongest theories that was being advanced by several private detectives is that the turmoil caused by Mellett's crusading efforts to enforce prohibition and narcotic laws inspired vengeful vendors of illicit wares to take his life a week ago today

This theory is borne out they said by the fact that Mellett had been par ticularly relentless in his campaign against certain of the Canton under world lords who controlled the liquor concessions in the jungle

The sleuths pointed out the great similarity between the Mellett slaying and the unsolved murder of Jack Kitzig whisky runner who was mur dered five years ago

Kitzig was killed with a single shot in the head shortly after he left a federal court about the ramifications of a huge liquor ring Two or three names which have been used in con nection with the killing of Mellett were also heard in reference to the Kitzig murder the private detectives declared

HERE'S SPLENDID FILLER FOR SUMMER SANDWICHES

A splendid filler for sandwiches is made as follows One half pound of dates one half pound washed but one quarter pound blanched almonds one half pound orange juice Put the dates and the figs the almonds through a meat chopper Add the juice of the orange and pack the mixture into a half pound baking powder can Slip the can in hot water and allow to stand for ten minutes before turning out Slice in very thin slices and put between two thin slices of white bread which has been buttered The bread should be cut round like the filler, and this can easily be accomplished by using the lid of the baking powder can in which the sandwich filler has been pressed

CHAPTER III

At two o'clock in the morning Jock reached home He entered through the kitchen door having left his machine in the garage at the rear Kempsey Bennett he asked of the butler woman he found in the act of fixing a tray with sandwiches and bottle

Bennett looked aggrieved His expression said plainly Isn't one of us company? He lighted Mr... ...er

Jock scooped up a handful of sa...d wiches and made his way to the ... of the house marching as he went By the door of the den he stood hesitant He could hear the little swishing slap of thin pasteboards on a patent leather table top aside from that the silence was absolute When a sudden outbreak of voices told him that the hand was over he sauntered in

But Ben my dear Mrs Hamill was saying Why on earth pass the eight spot in a case like that, ...ou knew very well I had—

She broke off Hello Jock she ...d smiled at him Do sit down my dear and observe the peculiar mat...ters of Mr Henry Harbour I want you to learn from him now not to play bridge

Mrs Hamill was the kind of woman who can make such remarks and in the modern parlance get away with them No one ever waxed wroth at Mrs Hamill Any man that is She was too all feather exquisite She ... ...r brown eyes dark brows and ... ...ot much silver hair which ... wore cut in a shingle bob a small ... ...gure and hands as soft and sp...pealing as a baby's Hands to be kissed those Hands to be caught and held in linger hands intensely Hands ... reach out in pretty supplication and ... ...ght like little white bats across what was given Her age was problematical It seemed to vary with her gowns with her moods with her companions until it ran the whole ...ale of years between twenty five and ...rty nine Who it actually was Jock never knew Once long ago he had asked and Madeleine Hamill had answered him almost savagely, I have forgotten On purpose This served to whet his curiosity so that there after he watched and wondered and ...ded in time to the confusing, realization that his mother was young with men middle aged with women and old when she was alone

Jock sat down as she had directed greeting the three men each in turn They were frequent visitors to the house and he knew them all well—Saunders Lincoln of the iron gray hair and the still athletic figure so particularly well that he had called him Uncle Jock and received from him ...r Uncle taking checks at Christmas almost ever since he could remember Uncle was here merely a term of familiarity however Saunders Lincoln was not a relative Why don't you marry him' Jock had demanded of his mother on a former occasion and had learned that he was already married to and separated from a woman who on account of her religion would not agree to a divorce

'Marriage Mrs Hamill had added is a mistake for one of my temperament any how I'm too fond of men in general Which was quite true Her Utopia was a world peopled solely by men with herself as a gracious goddess before whom all did obeisance—not to impress only She could not bear women and women of course could not bear her She made young ...men feel too young awkward gauche and older ones envious and faintly ...ntagonistic

When a college start up again Jock asked Saunders Lincoln now I'm leaving tomorrow sorry to say

Not anxious to get back eh?

'Not at all no'

Jock announced Jock's mother casually is a liar Hes quite wild to get back as a matter of fact I'd bid one no trump

This was the signal for all conversation to cease so Jock had no opportunity to debate the point He sprawled in his chair sipping at a highball that had been handed him and followed the play languidly with his glance Presently he took a pencil and began to scribble on the back of a bridge score This absorbed him for some moments after which he left the room taking the paper with him It was a poem to Yvonne a poem beginning 'Oh voice that sings a song in the night for the wind to carry forever—

Upstairs in his own quarters he read it aloud to himself Then he said to Jock rather sheepishly and tossed it away in a strong box

Later when Mrs Hamill ascended the stairs and tapped at his door, she found him stretched out across his bed in a fantastic green and white dressing gown reading Perfect Behavior by Donald Ogden Stewart His reaction from exhibitions of sentiment on his own part was always humor on the part of others Makes me snap out of it he would have said

He greeted her ably at least his humor does go home at last

Are they gone

Excellent except for Henry Barbour The man is a perfect nitwit and persists in leading from the ace de... the moment any rational leads are ... She must for off of the edge of the bed took one of Jock's cigarettes and sprawled thoughtfully

What's on your mind Jocky'

Nothing

Nonsense I knew there was something the minute you came into the room

Jock remained silent and Mrs Hamill after a long glance at him continued that she must be indiscreet and ... directions and Have a good time at the dance

Wonderful

How's Molly'

All right I guess She went home about ten o'clock Jock's tone was noncommittal but to his mother who knew him very much better than most ... usually knew the moment two and two ... sums he told volumes

Who was there' she inquired

The usual mob Art—and a girl from New York

Mrs Hamill was quite triumphant Oh so Molly went home at ten o'clock and there was a girl from New York She shook her head proudly Jock dear must I remind you that ninety nine per cent of the women trap ...less husbands are gentlemen who permit themselves inadvertently to be caught in the reticule'

I'm not a ... Jock protested How's her name

Yvonne Mountford

Between Mrs Hamill's eyes there appeared a wrinkle promptly erased because wrinkles are vicious things with a tendency to stay where they're put That name sounds familiar she mused I'll bet it's a—well what does she look like'

The yield of wheat in Ohio this sea[illegible] will be a bushel an acre heavier than last on an average according to C J West federal crop statistician For ten bushels to the acre from 1,800,000 acres says West will give Ohio 18,000,000 bushels That is half more than it got a year ago

Ohio's wheat threshing season usually lasts a month It will last longer this year according to Dr R W Salter of the Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster Wheat raisers in southwestern Ohio reported thousands of acres of failed wheat lands will oats Oats are harvested in August They will thresh wheat and oats together in that portion of Ohio according to Salter

Soon To Be Finished

Threshing of wheat in Marion County will soon be completed and cutting and harvesting of oats will get under way next week Some farmers in southern Marion County have already cut their oats The hail storm Sunday flattened oats to the ground in northwestern Marion County and farmers in that section will have difficulty in handling the crop

In speaking of this year's wheat crop in Ohio C J West federal crop statistician said that the crop is of unusual quality considering the bad start it got in a very dry April

There is less evidence of the wheat parasite He says the black stem rust other wheat diseases in northwestern Ohio than I have seen for eight years said E P Reed farm crops specialist of Ohio State University

[illegible]llowing the awarding of the contract it is probable that the contractor will be unable to begin work until after four weeks after receiving the job due to the difficulty in getting the marble on the ground

Will Have New Road

The marble will necessarily be hauled over the section of Marion Delaware Highway which passes the Harding Memorial The contract for the improvement has not been awarded but is expected to be let July 31

The road is to be constructed with a concrete base and asphalt covering and it is probable that the contractor will build only the concrete base this summer

The Harding Memorial will be one of the most unique monuments ever built

It will be of marble the color and type yet to be selected It will be circular in form with 48 large white marble columns representing the 48 states in the Union supporting the heavy circular top

The cost of the project has been estimated at $350,000 The base structure will be 250 feet in circumference and 80 feet in diameter It will be 53 feet high

Employ Large Force

Plans have been received for the foundation for the erection of 12 large marble pillars to be arranged in a circle the outside of the structure Within this circle of pillars will be constructed a heavy wall with an entrance facing the intersection of the Marion Delaware and Vernon Heights Blvd

The tomb will be built within the center of the monument

When the work of laying the marble structure is started it is expected that there will be a large force of men employed to rush the project along

FAMILY WOULD IMMORTALIZE BUFFALO BILL

Suitable Memorial to Famous Character of Frontier Days Is Proposed

London July 23—Britain's radio [illegible] of the memory of the late Colonel William Cody beloved [illegible] of the youth of the nation under the guise of Buffalo Bill through some fitting memorial [illegible] the hope and ambition of the late scout's family who met in Cleveland for their annual reunion.

Undecided whether the memorial should be in the form of a museum or [illegible] age the forty members of the Cody clan selected a committee headed by Mrs Mary Chester Allen of New York to prepare plans

Three possible cities have been selected as sites for the memorial They are Denver Omaha and Cody Wyoming

Many interesting sidelights of the character of the late redskin fighter were revealed at the reunion by his only surviving near relative Mrs Julia Cody Goodman Sr his sister

Mrs Goodman said the frail woman's spelled with pride was a real rider She was in turn justice of the peace and legislator in Nebraska where he settled after teaching Grand Duke Alexis how to shoot buffalo They [illegible]ught the Cody canal [illegible]60 miles to [illegible]ico ranch at North Platte

Harry H Cody of Cleveland was elected president of the clan for 1927 and Luther M Cody of Beverly Mass was selected to compile a genealogy of the Buffalo which as the name of the first Cody to land in this country at the time of the immigration of the Huguenots from France

MANAGER QUITS AFTER SUBPENAS ARE SERVED

Hamilton County Officials Take Lead In Fight on Coney Island Betting

Cincinnati, July 23—What we'll seem to give the Hamilton County sheriff and prosecutor a big lead in the first lap of the race between the law and the Coney Island race track betting has taken place as reported today

Stockholders of the track company were to meet this morning to appoint a new manager for William Halpin of

Secretary of the outstanding track directors has resigned Halpin made no comment on his action

News of the resignation came after deputy sheriffs arrested six and served subpoenas for appearance before the grand jury as with six to eight more to be served with the track

The placing of bets by deputy sheriffs and the arrests which followed all were done under the grandstand, out of sight of spectators while thousands crowded there before the grand pinching took place

It was an orderly proceeding as seven of the ticket sellers were arrested under the eyes of the spectators, other track employes and customers. After the sellers stepped into the cells and the selling was resumed on the concrete floor in front. A pot and order had been placed in safety by the prosecutor Carl J. Bowlby and he presented Charles S. Fell

NEW INSECT PEST THREATENS SOUTH

Cotton Growing In States Endangered By Appearance of Hopper Bug

Atlanta Ga July —A new insect pest which threatens to rival the boll weevil in ravages the cotton crop of the Southern States and which may play an important part in determining the price of the 1926 crop has appeared according to information collected by governmental and other agencies

The new pest is the cotton hopper sometimes called the "cotton flea" It derives its name from the extraordinary ability to hop or jump 100 times its own length while in the early stages Later it develops wings and flies merrily from cotton stalk to stalk continuing unmatured cotton bolls or squares just as the fruit is beginning to develop It sucks the sap from the boll and also deposits some kind of poison

The hopper made its first appearance according to government experts attached to the U S Bureau of Entomology station at Tallulah La who have been making an intensive study of the new pest and its habits in Texas Arizona having crossed the border from Mexico

ays, 'Two Men and a Woman" and 'Tennessee's Partner", Are Booked for First Day; Former Governor Harding of Iowa Will Give Address ama and music combine appeared on the Harding High School course recently will give the first lecture of the W. J. Harding former governor of Iowa and Dr. Herbert L. Willett of the University of Chicago will give the remaining lectures.

Carlos Inskeep Players will open the program Thursday afternoon July 31 with "Two Men And A Woman" will be presented a society comedy in three acts dealing with the marriage situation. The comedy has been played for 10 weeks on the lyceum stage without any adverse criticism it is said.

Tennessee's Partner famous short story by Bret Harte will be given for the night entertainment.

Miss Alice Shrode together with the Shubert Orchestral Sextet will entertain Friday afternoon. Miss Shrode has been declared as clever and captivating and is known as the biggest little entertainer on the chautauqua platform. She has been on chautauqua circuits for more than 13 years.

The Shubert Sextet also will take part in the night program with the Bennett lecture. The orchestra will offer a program of unusual variety and merit at each performance. Its members are experienced professional musicians.

'Man Who Can'

Mr. Bennett will lecture on 'The Man Who Can' said to be a dynamic and inspiring talk. He has given this lecture before more than 1,000 high school.

The entire entertainment Saturday afternoon will be given by the Mason Ladies Singers. Included in the entertainment will be 11 classical negro spirituals comedy sketches and readings from negro writers. Seven soloists are in the company all said to have an unusual talent for jubilee singing.

The Havoc of Stream by Farmer Governor Harding, will feature Saturday night's program. Mr. Harding is a traveler student lecturer and politician. He was at one time a member of the state legislature lieutenant governor and governor of Iowa. His lecture will be followed by a concert by the Mason singers.

Called Advance Thinker

Dr. Herbert L. Willett will lecture on 'The Bible and the Nation' Sunday night. He has been named as 'One of the advance thinkers of the age.' Dr. Willett is a widely known traveler a successful educator and a notable preacher.

(Magnus Schultz Concert Company will give a full concert for the afternoons entertainment and a short concert preceding the lecture at night. The company has at times been called 'The Persian date Concert Company.' Included in the program are Miss Eva Thorn contralto; Miss Delpha Edmond contralto; William Mitchell tenor; Ravia Smith pianist and accompanist and Magnus Schultz basso, cornetist and director of the company.

Two Band Programs

Band programs Monday will be given by Bachmann's Million Dollar Band a group of musicians that saw service in the World War. General Pershing of the U. S. Army christened this band 'The Million Dollar Band' while in France. The band is directed by Harold Bachmann with concerts each program. Special numbers and several successful seasons on several of the Chautauqua circuits of America. During the winter months the band is now at Tampa, Fla.

MELLON FORCES STILL MIGHT NAME SENATOR

Governor Would Make Appointment If Senate Refuses To Seat Vare

Washington July 25— Sweet revenge is uppermost in Pennsylvania Republican circles and Governor Pinchot is said to be considering only ways and means by which the Mellon organization may be humiliated.

Should Vare and not a Democrat be seated the truth of this report remained to be brought out. Some of the political terrors of the capital are likely to descend on Pennsylvania's tangled Senatorial election in November.

The powerful Mellon organization that controls the western half of the Keystone state as firmly as the Vare machine in Philadelphia controls the eastern end was sadly to discomfit through Governor Pinchot's refusal to sign credentials of Senator-elect William S. Vare. Despite the expenditure of more than a million dollars in behalf of Congressman Vare the Mellon organization has failed to accomplish the only practical victory in the nomination of Senator Pinchot for Senator—and that by the narrow margin of 6,000 votes.

Still In Doubt

Vare's inclination in the defeat of Representative Roy Vare at the hands of Senator Pinchot in the Republican primary still is in doubt. Should Vare withdraw from the race before November which is considered unlikely unless unforeseen political developments occur the Democratic state committee would have to name a candidate. Democratic leaders in Pennsylvania together with the 600,000 votes the Republican normally pull around 1,200,000. Thus half the Republican party in the Keystone state would have to desert Vare and vote for Wilson the Democratic nominee if there is to be a Democratic Senator. Democratic politicians consider this a remote contingency with Sunday Hot Senate progressive-Republican Norris of Nebraska and La Follette (R) of Wisconsin are openly advocating Wilson's election.

What If Elected

But will the Senate seat Vare if he is elected? Nearly all the Democrats in the Senate and most of the Republican insurgents are said to be willing to seat Vare. Democratic leaders are also declaring that they will not be seated because of the sentiment against him. This is for three times the amount spent by Truman H. Newberry in Michigan which the Senate declined to seat as excessive and for which the Democrats tried as a party to expel the Michigan Senator.

The Democrats and the Republican insurgents will control the next Senate. If Democratic control the Senate they will probably seat Vare. Republican defeats Vare already has been chalked up in the Democratic column to insure a majority of Administration strength in the Seventieth Congress. The Democrats state that because the Republican insurgents have all the votes they will not be seated because of the Democratic majority.

Up to Governor

Therefore if Vare is denied a seat the selection of successor will rest with Governor John S. Fisher. Democrats in Pennsylvania Fisher's election is regarded as certain as the result in Ohio. Democrats Governor in that state. It is conceivable that Governor Fisher may name any Republican to the powerful Mellon organization that rule Pennsylvania.

Of course this is hypothetical at this time. Vare might be selected or an independent Republican might be appointed. Democratic leaders declare that they will not be satisfied with anything less than the seating of Vare. Vare might be seated and then resign leaving the Governor to appoint a successor.

All the hubbub that has been raised—and the general pandemonium around Washington are talking of all the queer twist of fate that has dropped a secret Senatorship in the lap of the Mellon organization which the expenditure of a million and a half dollars could not control.

A wise person is never to be taken unless there is an urgent necessity for it.

What good work a man can live in a warm inmate in a shack—as in a cold one.

Because of the man whose dog crawls under the fence when La master enters the gate.

CLEMENTS' CONTRACT MAY STOP BOUT

Rickard Says He Will Drop Negotiations Entirely if Courts Decide Against Him

Dispute Interrupts Tex's Plans To Stage Heavyweight Championship Brawl at Chicago on Sept. 11; Paper Signed by Dempsey Last Winter Cause of Dispute

BY GENE HOFFMAN

CHICAGO, July 25—Despite optimistic pronouncements of an early Dempsey-Tunney championship fight, a summation of facts in the involved situation today indicated that Dempsey's defense of his title here Sept 11, as announced by Tex Rickard, is anything but certain

To bolster this contention, the involved contract controversy may be cited as the most impressive threat to the proposed fistic classic There is Rickard, on one side, claiming sole ownership to Dempsey's services with B C Clements of the Coliseum Club, and Floyd Fitzsimmons, Indiana promoter, on the other side stoutly disputing the claim

It is generally conceded now that Clements claim to a binding contract with the champion has more foundation than at first believed It is likely that the matter will be taken to the courts for decision Following a conference between attorneys for both parties Rickard announced that if the Clements contract was held valid he would stop negotiations for the bout

Fitz at Fault

Fitzsimmons entered the controversy by reason of the fact that he was the original signer of Dempsey Later, he transferred his contract to the Coliseum Club, under Clements' direction Because Clements and his organization failed to pay $100,000 to the champion last March as agreed Rickard and Dempsey claim the contract is void

Besides the contract squabble there are other complications Rickard announced the fight and is here ostensibly to promote it Rickard is not a resident of Illinois and the new boxing law states specifically that no one not a resident of the state can dabble in fight promotion

Big Men Behind Tex

It was learned today that Sheldon Clark millionaire ship president and general manager of the Sinclair Refining Co, will head a committee of seven businessmen in backing Tex Rickard's venture

There is no denying that Clark's association with the project greatly enhances Chicago's chance to stage the bout

Clark is a former commodore of the Chicago Yacht Club and is held in high esteem He is a national figure in financial and political circles Clark it is understood will become the nominal head of the venture with Rickard working in the background

An obligation of any sort is a kind of mortgage on your time

CROQUET POPULAR

The present season has been a great revival in the popularity of croquet in England

Main, Marion Hurler, to Attempt "Iron Man" Stunt in Tourney Here Sunday

Local Pitcher May Be Called Upon To Twirl Two Games; Four Strong Teams Entered in Baseball Meet at Lincoln Park

MAIN crack hurler of the Marion Athletics will attempt to pull the "iron man" stunt in the baseball tournament scheduled to be staged at Lincoln Park sunday afternoon

According to present plans of Manager Burton Main will pitch against the Fostoria New York Central League team in the opening tilt for the athletics and providing the local team comes through to a win he will be sent in action in the deciding game of the tournament with the winner of the Elyria Richwine-Tiffin Eagles clash

In the event that Main is unable to stand the strain of the two games Local plans to call Chet Sharrock on to finish up the ceremonies As the three games in the tournament will be seven inning affairs it is considered likely that one pitcher can stand the pace in two games

All four teams entered in the tournament loom as the strongest semi pro clubs in this section of the state and a hot battle for first honors is expected to take place

Athletics in Second Game

The Elyria Tiffin game will start off the ceremonies at 1 o'clock The Athletics will tackle Bucyrus in the second tilt with the winner of the two games meeting in the deciding contest

A large crowd is expected to witness the game A big grandstand will be located on the grounds for the benefit of out of town visitors at the tournament

HORSESHOE MATCH SLATED SATURDAY

The Marion Steam Shovel horseshoe pitchers will meet the Lima team in a match game at the Steam Shovel courts Saturday afternoon according to an announcement made today The Lima team is bringing some of the foremost horseshoe tossers representing that city to compete against the local team The match will get under way promptly at 2 o'clock

POLLAKS TACKLE MIDWAY LUNCHES IN FEATURE TILT

Railway Service Meets Shovels in Other Industrial Loop Game

TWO hard fought and interesting games are expected to be played at the Marion Steam Shovel grounds Saturday afternoon when the four teams entered in the Industrial Baseball League meet in games which promise to have an important bearing on the standing

With a slim hold on first place the Pollak Powers will attempt to increase their lead in the loop when they tackle the Midway Lunches in the first and feature game Saturday afternoon The latter team has been playing great baseball despite the fact it has been losing games consistently Last week the Midways lost to the crack Marion Steam Shovels by the score of 4 to 3 in 10 innings and promise to be not a easy for the league leaders Saturday

In the second game in the loop the Railway Service outfit will make a bid to regain first place when it meets the Marion Steam Shovels The Shovelmen were nosed out of the top position last Saturday

The first game will get under way promptly at 1 30 o'clock with the second game following the initial tilt

Calvary Churchmen Will Meet Fast Bucyrus Team

It will be a case of churchmen jousting with automobile salesmen next Monday night on the Harmon Playground N Sandusky as Bucyrus when the Marion Calvary Sunday school and the Bucyrus Studebakers clash in an inter City softball match

The Bucyrus outfit having established a record for winnings in Bucyrus and environs is looking for new worlds to conquer

In the Calvary outfit it will find one of the strongest winning combinations among Marion's numerous recreational leagues

The game is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock

A large delegation of rooters is expected to accompany the team to Bucyrus

Pacific Coast Has Numerous Graduates in Big Leagues

Los Angeles July 25—Baseball players with diplomas from the Pacific Coast League are as conspicuous in the major leagues this year as raisins in restaurant pudding

Among last years graduates now in the big time are Tony Lazzeri (Salt Lake City) with the Yankees Paul Waner (San Francisco) Pittsburgh Babe Herman (Seattle) Brooklyn Ted Lyons (Seattle) Boston Nationals Bill Hunnefield (Portland) White Sox and Jackie Warner (Vernon) Detroit Tigers

Other players who have been up for more than a year are Jimmy Reels (Portland) and Catcher Cochran (Portland) with the Athletics Dick Cox (Portland) with Brooklyn Irish Meusel (Los Angeles) and Bob Meusel (Vernon) now with the New York Giants and Yankees respectively Harry Heilmann (San Francisco) the hard hitting outfielder of the Tigers and Vic Aldridge (Los Angeles) now pitching for Pittsburgh

Men In Minors

Former Coast leaguers are just as prominent in the minors Jim Baker (ex former Vernon outfielder) is hitting over .400 for Omaha Nick Dumovich former Los Angeles manager is doing well by Kansas City and Leo Thomas former University of Southern California pitcher is with Toledo

In the Western League these former coast league players are hitting around .300, Pete Compton Wichita Oberlin Denver Tony Rego Wichita Bleuge Tate Lincoln Coleman Denver Horn Denver Meyer Omaha

Catcher Yarrum is slugging right and left for Cunningham and Charley Deal of New Orleans has been doing better than .3

In the Texas league Pinky Behe San Antonio Joe Mathes Houston Del Mezza Houston Edington Fort Worth Tapon Wichita Falls Lindmore Fort Worth and Vance Houston are well known Coast League fans

Watched by Majors

There are a number of players in the Pacific Coast league this year upon whom leading players have been listed by major league clubs Catcher Shea of Sacramento is reported to be wanted by a dozen big league clubs Just why the other four clubs refuse to make it unanimous has not been explained

Eleven teams in the American and National Leagues are said to be after Lanford Lary of Oakland Other promising players not subject to draft and likely candidates for a major league trend include the following

Second Baseman Jimmy Reese of Oakland

Shortstop Monk Sherlock of the San Francisco Missions

Earl Averill outfielder for San Francisco Seals

Outfielder Fuzzy Hufft of Seattle and Outfielder Buzz Arlett of Oakland both of whom hit to hurt

Third Baseman Jim McLaughlin of Sacramento

Pitcher Fred Ortman young left hander with Portland has shown a lot of stuff and ought to bring a good price on the auction block

BINCOS TO PLAY AT PHARISBURG

Marion Team Has Strong Club Booked Sunday Afternoon

Reds Shove Across 11 Runs in Second Inning to Beat Braves; Indians Win, 4-2

Tribe Gains Clear Title to Second Place in American League by Defeating Athletics, Babe Ruth Triples and Steals Home in Yanks White Sox Game

Slapping out hits and runs with wild abandon the Cincinnati Reds scored 11 runs in the second inning of its game yesterday at Redland Field with the Braves winning by the score of 13 to 3

Pete Donohue, hurling for the league leaders, breezed through to a win and did not exert himself after the Reds had garnered enough runs to win two ball games in the second inning He allowed 11 bingles but kept them well scattered

Goldsmith and Genewich were the battered victims of the mighty bat attack which enveloped the field in all directions and completely blotted out the desperate and struggling Braves During the enormous rally the Reds sent fifteen men to the bat and eleven of them hit safely The net result was eleven large and ornate tallies so that for the proceedings assumed the score of a legal formality and nothing more

Score in First

The league leaders gave Goldsmith a right taste of what was coming to him when they put over a tally in the first inning on successive hits by Roush Hargrave and Pipp after two were out This however was only a feeler They were so infuriated by the insolence of the Braves in tying the score in the second on singles by Brown and Zack Taylor and a sacrifice fly that they sealed the outcome without any question in their half of the round Finally forced the great parade with a single Donohue thinking that a simple fly would help out snarled him to second Donohue got a looper to left which fell between Bancroft and Brown and then the big stuff began rolling in

Christy Hits Triple

Christy poled a long triple to the flag pole in right center and came on home when High fooled the throwing department two runs ahead of him Walker at his first triple of the season and Roush sent him with a single which sent Goldsmith perspiring off the slab Hargrave greeted Genewich with a liner to Dugger into the right field corner Pipp was second out on a grounder to High but Critz singled scoring Bill Hes Pinelli Tanner and Donohue singled in succession and Christy was waved when his roller trickled over first Hogs hoofs Walker came through with his second three bagger of the day and then Roush mercifully ended it with a fly to Brown

Tris Speaker's Indians made it two straight from the Athletics at Philadelphia yesterday and the Tribe went into undisputed possession of second place in the American league race The score of Thursday's battle was 4 to 2

It was a gala day for Cleveland In the first place George Burns slammed out his fortieth two base hit of the season in the eighth inning In the second place George Uhle hung up his fifteenth win and thirdly the Tribe knocked Lefty Grove out of the box in the eighth making it the third beating the Mack hurling ace has taken at the hands of the Indians this year

Nemesis to Ma

The Tribe has certainly proved a nemesis to Connie Mack's bunch of ball tossers this season To date the Indians have won eight and lost only two games to the Athletics

Uhle hurled a nice game Thursday allowing the Mackmen seven hits in all The two runs scored off him came in the final stanza after the Tribe had gathered a four run lead

The Yankees and White Sox engaged in a slugfest of the see saw variety the Yanks being on top 13 to 10 when the smoke cleared away Ruth got no homers but stole home and tripled with the bases full

Although Jacobson got five hits and the Red Sox fought hard they lost to the Browns in the eleventh 5 to 4 going down for the third time

Detroit's pitchers wilted away faster than a shoe clerk's bankroll on Broad...

...was as the Tigers succumbed to the Senators 15 to 0

Holloway passed eight men Washington had two big innings They scored five runs in the first and eight in the fifth

The Pirates also had a field day swamping the Dodgers 14 to 2 and hammering out 21 hits Waner led the attack with four blows

Virgil Barnes bested Alexander the Great as the Giants trounced the Cardinals 9 to 0 Bell Southworth and Terry hit homers

The Cubs came acropper and lost to the Phillies 6 to 4 Cubby Hartnett Chicago catcher was injured

Chicago Has Wives "Help Themselves" to Alimony

"Cafeteria Court" Where

Chicago, July 23—Chicago's newest "cafeteria court" has been formally opened here, with alimony as the fare!

The Cook county alimony bureau, sponsored by Superior Judge Joseph B. Sabath, has been granted an appropriation for the expense of collecting and distributing the $15,000,000 in alimony paid by divorced husbands to their former mates.

The first alimony check to Mrs. Mae [illegible] Bauer, of the board of public welfare, who acted in court and saved [illegible] work.

It will be her duty to accept from husbands the alimony they have been ordered to pay for the support of former wives and children. She will make out checks for the amounts, and forward them to the beneficiaries.

Judge Sabbath, who has a record of handling more than 9,000 divorce cases annually, said he believes other judges of the municipal court through whose court many additional divorce suits are certified, will co-operate.

"I don't care so much about the 'childless wives,'" said Judge Sabbath, in speaking of the bureau's inauguration.

"But every day, mothers appeal to me for assistance in enforcing the payments of alimony. In many cases they are too poor to hire attorneys to press their claims. Even if they do obtain a lawyer's services he usually collects most needed of the money that is ordered, he has for.

"Under the alimony bureau all this will be dispensed with and when a man refuses to pay, or otherwise fails to meet the court's order, he will find himself in jail."

Establishment of Cost System in Government Stressed By Thad Brown

Middletown, O., July 23—Declaring that it was the duty of the chief executive of the state to name a director of finance who "has the courage to fight expenditures under the budget system," Secretary of State Thad Brown, a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, addressing members of the Middletown Rotary Club, pleaded for the establishment of "a cost system in government based upon sound economic principles."

"Joseph Frary, state auditor, has announced that the state will not be able to meet its obligations by the middle of October," said Brown. "The responsibility for such a condition rests with the director of finance who has the power and authority, under the law, to limit all expenditures."

VOICES DISAPPROVAL

Columbus, O.—Opposition to the proposal that the Ohio legislature enact a law providing for a state constabulary has been voiced by Thomas J. McKee, a candidate for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor. McKee, also, favored changes in the Ohio workmen's compensation act.

E EX-CONGRESSMAN EDITOR PRISON PAPER

W. Langley, of Kentucky, Appointed to Position at Georgia Pen

...rta, July 23—John W. Langley, ... Kentucky congressman, who is ... a sentence for conspiracy to ... the prohibition law, has been ...ne editor of "Good Words," the ... monthly publication of the Fed... penitentiary at Atlanta, according to announcement by Warden John Snook.

Langley inherited the editorial post, after it had been held by a number of prominent prisoners. His immediate successor was Austin Howard Montgomery, sent to the prison from New York. Montgomery succeeded Former Governor McCray of Indiana, and relinquished the post when he was promoted to the job of warden's secretary. McCray was forced to give up his editorial duties by ill health.

The population of the Atlanta prison is again near the high record mark, with more than 3,250 prisoners confined in the grey stone walls. The record was 3,260 prisoners, reached during the summer of 1925, Warden Snook said.

Intellectual poverty is often the cause for the material kind.

In all walks of life—among those who toil and sweat as well as among those who work with their minds only—Buckeye is the favorite. On this basis it was recently selected by a prominent chain store as the only brand it will handle. Laboratory tests proved too, that a 2½ pound can of Buckeye is to be preferred to a 3 pound can of ordinary malt.

CHICAGO CLUB ASSERTS IT WILL STAGE BOUT

Dempsey and Wills To Battle Between Sept. 16 and Sept. 20, Is Claim

Chicago, July 23—The Chicago Coliseum Club announced today that Jack Dempsey will defend his title as world's heavyweight champion against Harry Wills, negro challenger, in Chicago on a day between Sept. 16 and Sept. 20.

The club declared it held contracts with both the fighters and that it was prepared to show in court Tex Rickard, New York promoter, could not go through with his announced Dempsey-Gene Tunney bout, scheduled in Chicago, Sept. 11.

The Dempsey-Wills fight, the club headed by R. C. Clements, Chicago promoter, announced, will be held in Soldiers Field Stadium or the White Sox or Cub ball parks.

The club also announced Paddy Mullins, manager of Wills, would arrive here Monday from New York and Wills would follow shortly to start training and that Dempsey, now in Colorado Springs, would be instructed to come to Chicago immediately.

Both Dempsey and Wills would establish training quarters here, according to the announcement.

REPEATS CHARGE THAT HE IS BEING "FRAMED"

Rev. J. Frank Norris, Preacher-Slayer, Takes Pen in Hand To Defend Conduct

Fort Worth, Texas, July 23—Rev. J. Frank Norris, Baptist revivalist, who shot and killed D. E. Chipps, today in the "Searchlight," a publication which he edits, repeated the charge that his enemies are attempting to "frame him."

In an editorial which has a two column position on the first page, Norris resumes his attack on the Tarrant grand jury which he challenged several days ago as "hand-picked."

He charged in his paper that the investigating body was selected for the explicit purpose "of indicting Mr. Norris for criminal libel" in connection with his attacks on Mayor H. C. Meacham and City Manager O. E. Carr.

The editorial further charges that a group of persons at a clandestine meeting subscribed funds for the private counsel which has been retained by Mrs. Chipps as special prosecutors.

A too contemptuous view of the activities of mankind would result in many really worthy projects ending in a laugh.

Majority is never right—all of the time.

BATTLE TO SUCCEED SENATOR UNDERWOOD

Candidates to succeed Senator Underwood from Alabama

MOBILE, Ala., July 23—Who will succeed Oscar W. Underwood as United States senator from Alabama? This is one of the questions uppermost in the minds of the people of Alabama at present. The campaign for the democratic nomination at the primary of Aug. 10 has developed into a warm five cornered race. Senator Underwood is not a candidate for re election.

Candidates seeking the democratic nomination, which is considered virtually equivalent to election, are:

John H. Bankhead of Jasper, lawyer. He served as campaign manager for his father, the late United States Senator John Hollis Bankhead. He is a former member of the Alabama legislature.

Thomas E. Kilby of Anniston, ex-governor. He served as the state's chief executive from 1919 to 1923. He had previously held the offices of lieutenant governor and state senator. He has been engaged in the manufacturing business for a number of years.

Hugo L. Black of Birmingham, lawyer. He formerly held the office of judge of the city court of Birmingham and also has been solicitor of the Jefferson county criminal court.

J. B. Musgrove of Jasper, coal operator. He was an opponent of Senator Underwood for the nomination to the United States senatorship in the campaign of 1920.

James J. Mayfield of Montgomery, lawyer, former associate justice of the Alabama supreme court and state code commissioner. He was first elected to the supreme court in 1908 for six years; reelected in 1914; resigned in 1919 to become code commissioner for a second time.

PARISIANS DISAPPROVE OF SIGHTSEEING TOURS

Angered by Fall of Franc, French Stage Demonstration Against Visitors

Paris, July 23—Parisian night life no longer has attractions for the timid American tourist.

Auto bus companies have suspended their "see Paris by night" tours because last night, for the third successive night, there were demonstrations against sight-seeing busses carrying English and German visitors, as well as Americans.

As busses passed through the Mont Martre district, epithetics such as Montmartre and the dark districts of New York excelled in, were hurled at the visitors.

"Carry on your sprees at home, not here," the crowds yelled at the sightseers.

The demonstrations probably are due to latter campaigns being carried on by a number of Parisian newspapers, which are violently attacking tourists for taking advantage of the slump in the franc, which is causing increased prices for the French. Frenchmen are angered by the sight of these visitors enjoying the gay life and the champagne, which the natives can not afford.

Here and there, there is a writer who wonders how well he could write if fictions of mankind would result in he could ever get enough sleep.

They perish.. None survives!

IT wipes them out! Every fly every mosquito every roach inside your home dies —BLACK FLAG doesn't miss one. It's different because it's deadlier.

Surer, quicker, more thorough in its destruction—those are points which impress you when you first use BLACK FLAG. It kills till every bug is dead. Kills in a different way. The pests breathe it and die. All of 'em! Strangled by the secret, vegetable ingredient—the deadliest ingredient ever discovered for all insect pests. But absolutely harmless to humans and animals.

It's not only deadly to flies and mosquitoes, BLACK FLAG kills and rids a place of fleas, ants, bed-bugs, roaches, moths. Try it. Buy the form you prefer—liquid or powder. At drug, grocery, hardware and department stores. Powder is 15c up. Powder Gun, 10c. And look at the low liquid prices below. Compare them.

Jubilee's Pardner

A Story of Boyhood Adventures

BY JUDD MORTIMER LEWIS

J bilee laid quite a while and tried to figg'r out make a heater so simp it was the minute anyone te ater and starts to make it hot We couldn't figger it out I thnk he tried as hard as I

and Feeble came warm we to the pasture with the rd when we got out in the where we found the deer at we had pulled the feathers play Indian with it was still was a whole lot dealer the first day we found it I tell before they got wh re see it that it was done sure how the first day we e had not thought us any to do with it but the we bought it would be a lot of take it out to Rocky River for bait to catch some soft es with and Louniss held their nose to leave the horrid thing behind the Lost Bag of Tripe a horrid thing to the cows let her take it as far as the us I looked at him to see as mocking Louniss by calling it thing but he looked so in his face so mussed up ped with the board that a at him

we got to the pasture we took gether at the rest of the wars were lucky it didn't come apart it up to the flats where the a all smooth stone where I seen the slate I fill and went got it out there where it was it to a fella knees an put it to hold it and then we d better for it began doing all broadcasting under water

Feeble wanted to know how we were going to catch the turkies and I was with my hands and she said after I could get catch her a chud in a creele ket She thinks she is smart We sot up on the hill and watched a pretty soon the biggest old soft shell we ever saw came paddling up Feeble and all of us run in to get but she ran upstream of him and under water in an slicker and cows nose and she took a bell

Feeble and all of us run in to get him

mer and mudded the water so it got away Then we all went in with clothes on and stood all day so we got some after it But I fell not brit and I told her and she sailed a piece of slate at me that almost took my kneecap We got a turkey corn and I roasted it and had a grand supper time

Daily Bedtime Story

BY HOWARD GARIS

Uncle Wiggily and His Friends

afternoon when Nurse Jane had out and Mrs Longears hurrying and the rabbit children chasing hide the roller skates Wiggily fell asleep on the back rabbit gentleman did not fall so he did not get hurt In a while fell into dreamland He can be dreamed that he had radio with about sixteen forty tubes so he could tune in the Pole and hear Santa Claus talk reindeer

That was a jolly dream! exclaimed Uncle Wiggily rubbing his eyes awakened I wonder if it really did Maybe there is a new radio hollow stump bungalow!

eal did the dreams seem that all the rabbit gentleman hopped up ent inside But no there was fire tube set just the same as he had fallen asleep

old radio is pretty good though for Longears to himself As me wife is away so she won't me to tune in at once how to make dress out of an old bed quilt and Nurse Jane is out and can't ask to directions for making noodle ut of rice cakes and with the all away so they won't tease I'll tell me story I'll just tune in ho to suit myself

Uncle Wiggily sat himself down the dials and began to turn his way and that way listening queer sounds that came through ers on his ears is Oshkosh' said a voice all ar and Uncle Wiggily listened ncert from that nice place

This is Walla Walla said another voice and music came from the th the double name

you will hear the Squantum Cornet Band spoke a third al then music began to play like mosquitos humming and Uncle was much pleased

Can to have the radio all to I said Mr Longears with as he turned back to Oshkosh was just hearing a talk on how apple trees grow cabbages all of a sudden there was a noise door and a voice growled at are you doing

ening to the radio my dear ncle Wiggily thinking it was his Then he was sorry he had been for it was the Woozy Wolf sat there in the open door glar the rabbit gentleman

tening to the radio, eh snarled d chap

answered the rabbit wonder he could do to keep from being oled Wouldn't you like to hear me story?

I wouldn't growled the Wolf so early to go to bed and he didn't care for that sort of stuff!

some nibbles I do!' and he hungrily at the rabbit's ears

just listen to this would you Uncle Wiggily pretending to be amused though really he was not to hear what was going on other the Wolf could stop him Wiggily clapped the receivers bad chap's ears and then down to where the big strong storage battery stood He hurriedly took off two of the electric wires through their points toward the wolf's tail

Do you hear anything ask the rabbit

No not a thing growled the bad chap You'll have to make it stronger for me But don't think just because you let me listen to your radio that I won't nibble you for I shall—all the more But make it stronger

All right—I'll make it stronger! cried the rabbit and then he touched the wires from the storage battery to the Wolf's tail

There was a big sizzling spark a

'I'll just tune in on my radio'

flash of fire and that Wolf leaped up in the air with a howl crying

What happened What happened Who shot me

Nobody shot you laughed Uncle Wiggily as the bad chap tore the phones from his ears and ran out of the bungalow You said to make it strong er and I did I gave you a strong electric shock from the storage battery Now will you be good

I guess I'll have to! howled the bad chap Oh wowzie!

And if the pepper box doesn't put salt in the sugar bowl to tease the cook I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's corn pudding

I THOUGHT I'D DIE WHEN I HEARD HIM TELLING HER HE WAS GOING TO BUY A RUBBER PLANTATION IN MEXICO - IF I WERE NOT A LADY I'D ENJOY LISTENING TO WHAT THE MEXICANS SAY WHEN THEY GET A GOOD LOOK AT HIM -
WHAT A FINE RUBBER FARMER HE'LL MAKE - I'LL BET HE CAN PUT HIS FIRST YEARS CROP ON THE TOP OF A LEAD PENCIL - LET HIM GO AHEAD AND START BOUNCING AROUND HIS RUBBER FARM LIKE A MEXICAN JUMPING BEAN - BUT IF HE STARTS TO RUBBER AROUND MY KITCHEN THERE WILL BE A BIG DROP IN THE RUBBER MARKET -
IF HE GOES TO MEXICO IT'S THE FIRST GOOD THING HE EVER DID FOR THIS COUNTRY - I HOPE AS SOON AS HE PUTS HIS FOOT ACROSS THE BORDER HE STEPS ON A NICE HOT REVOLUTION -

PROFESSIONAL TRADERS SEEK EXCHANGE CONTROL

Early Recovery Invites Renewal of Speculative Selling with Industrials Strong

New York July 23 — Professional stock traders crossed swords today in a spirited contest for control of the situation in the leading industrial stocks including the motors and steels

An early recovery invited the renewal of speculative selling which has put the market so frequently in recent months the bears concentrating on General Motors United States Steel Woolworth Case Iron Pipe and Hudson Motors

Considerable relief was expressed in financial circles over the apparent success of M Poincare in forming a new government in France Though the weekly reserve bank statements showed a gain in reserves and money is offered freely at this center there was a somewhat hardening tone to the short term money market due in large measure to the withdrawal of funds by the interior banks

Bearish traders promptly increased their selling pressure against the industrial stocks when it developed that considerable uncertainty prevailed in the financial district with respect to the immediate future of the market

Today In Marion Markets

Groceries, Produce, Meats, Grain, Livestock

An advance fruit prices is expected by local dealers in Marion markets Saturday

Owing to the recent heavy rains the demand for fruit has increased rapidly Dealers believe a lull will take place in the lemon market in a few days Lemons sold today at a general price of 35 cents a dozen

Bananas were higher in price on the wholesale market but the retail market was unaffected as yet Some stands asked 5 cents a dozen while others sold four pounds for 25 cents

Tomatoes of both varieties are also predicted to soar upward Since the bottom of variety dealers have asked five cents on the pound making the quotation on the vegetable 10 cents Garden tomatoes are scarce

Blackberries Back

Blackberries appeared in the market today and sold at 40 cents a quart

Raspberries were unchanged in the fruit counters today A low price on the black variety was still at cents a quart while the low on the red was 40 cents High on the latter was 55 cents

Head lettuce of the homegrown grade sold today at 30 cents a pound A few of the dealers sold their display at 10 cents a head Leaf lettuce was steady

Watermelons were available for 40 and 50 cents in most markets Several varieties were being sold

Plums are not expected to be included in the advance of fruit Saturday An abundance of the fruit is noticed in all the markets The general price will be 15 cents a pound and two pounds for 25 cent

no longer imperiled under hygienic handicaps—new way offers true protection, discards like tissue
FRESH, charming, immaculate under ALL conditions, Sheer gowns worn without a second's fear, any time, any day!
If you seek this added charm, stop employing old-time "sanitary pads," homemade, uncertain.
Eight in 10 better-class women now employ "KOTEX" . . . a new way, 5 times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.
Absorbs and deodorizes all the same time, thus ending ALL danger of offending.
You discard it as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.
You ask for it without hesitancy, at any drug or department store, discreetly saying "KOTEX."
In fairness to yourself, try this amazing way. Costs only a few cents. Comes twelve in a package.

HOLLYWOOD MAN DINNER GUEST OF LOCAL LODGE

Former Head of California Knights Templar Body Given Reception at Harding

James Wilson of Hollywood Commanders Knights Templar, Hollywood Calif., and his wife were the guests of Marion Commanders No 28 Knights Templar at a dinner at Hotel Harding last night

Mr Wilson was the commander of the Hollywood Commanders three years ago when a delegation of the local commanders made the pilgrimage to that city to present the International Traveling Beauseant to Hollywood Commanders

The late President Warren G Harding, who was at that time in California was to have made the main address at the presentation of the Temple Owing to the illness which caused his death a few hours later, he was forced to cancel his engagement His address was read at the ceremonies by George B Christian Jr then secretary of the late president

The Wilsons will make a tour of eastern cities and return home Sept 1

STREET GANGS AT WORK DESPITE INTENSE HEAT

Repairs Continue in Torrid Weather; Cutting Back Corners of Intersections

Despite the intense heat work on the improvement and repair of Marion city streets has continued without any interruption

Gangs of street repairers under William Flounker street foreman have worked daily, morning and afternoon on various streets of the city getting them into shape

Today work is being done on Center and Bellefontaine ave where the curves are being cut back Work has been completed on Perrine and Bellefontaine and several alleys in the business district were repaired

A man never realizes the value of a dollar until he is followed by a persistent collector

Eight Women and Two Girls Killed, 23 Injured When Sight-Seeing Bus Upsets

Niagara N Y July 23—Eight women and two girls are dead today and 23 others are suffering from injuries, some of them serious, as a result of the upset of a sight-seeing bus last night at Spark R near here

Every person in the bus which ran amuck is a woman and children from Brooklyn, was either killed or injured The party was returning from Bear Mountain, where the passengers had gone to escape the heat The bus, speeding down a hill when the brakes refused to hold, would not make a sharp turn at the bottom of the hill and turned a somersault, crashing against the windows of a store

Daniel Lustro, driver of the bus who was only slightly injured was arrested and held in jail for grand jury action

The dead are

Mrs Katherine Barth Marguerite Roper 12 Mrs Henry Schultz, Katherine Albert 5, Mrs Carrie Engelhardt, Mrs Mary Berger, Mrs Sweeke Emma Billings and two unidentified women

Physicians at the Spark Hospital where the injured were taken feared that several of the injured would die

Fifteen passengers whose injuries were not serious were taken home to Brooklyn this morning

Sparkill policemen found the women and children groaning and struggling under the wrecked bus, squirming to free themselves While children scream ed for their mothers, the members of the fire department were summoned to lift the bus Aided by nearly the entire population of the village, the firemen extricated the victims in record time Just had been killed almost instantly and it appeared that many of the injured would not live.

The injured were rushed to the hospital in various conveyances The village ice man carrying many of the victims in his ice wagon transported them to the hospital at full speed lashing his horses furiously during the four mile journey

MAN JAILED ON CHARGES BROUGHT BY HIS WIFE

Lowell George, 35, Accused of Disorderly Conduct Following Family Quarrel

Lowell George 35 of 414 Scranton ave father of six children, is in City Prison facing charges of disorderly conduct

Police records show that George returned to his home late last night after an unexplained absence of three weeks A quarrel with Mrs George ensued.

As a climax of the family strife police claim George struck his wife and then with a loaded 32 caliber revolver defied her to call for help

Mrs George didn't call but a neighbor heard the commotion and called the police Officers subdued the irate husband and led him meekly to City Prison where disorderly conduct charges were placed against him by Mrs. George

REJECTED CITY BUDGET RETURNED TO PRETTYMAN

Chairman of Council's Finance Committee Says He Has Not Rechecked Estimates

Marion's budget of operating expenses for 1927 which was rejected by the Marion County Budget commission on the ground that it is 'incomplete and confusing' was returned to R E Prettyman, chairman of the finance committee of city council, this morning

Mr Prettyman declared that he had not yet rechecked the budget to find the errors cited by the commission, and would not know whether or not it must be passed by council again until after the rechecking No meeting of the finance committee had been called today to go over the budget

DAMAGE SUIT APPEALED FROM JUSTICE'S COURT

Case Taken Up to Common Pleas Court After Stoll Gives Verdict

Damage suit of V A Hecker against Frank Thompson, 815 Woodrow av, to recover $40 damages as the result of an auto crash on the Dickason Free Turnpike rd, near Lafine, was today appealed from the court of Justice M O Stoll to Common Pleas Court

The case was appealed by Thompson following a verdict in Justice Stoll's court in favor of Hecker

Thompson has filed an answer and cross petition in the suit asking for $100 damages, due to the same accident

The accident occurred June 5, 1926, when the machines of the two parties collided head on a few miles east of Lafine on the Dickason rd.
